

871—10.7(84A) Planning and development bureau. The bureau assists the division administrator in planning, directing and coordinating division projects. Responsibilities include:

1. Developing and using labor market information;
2. Developing and using information technology for better delivery of workforce development services.